

A photograph of three children running in a dirt courtyard. In the foreground, a boy in an orange tank top and brown shorts is running towards the right. Behind him, another boy in a blue and white checkered shirt and a black skirt with white polka dots is also running towards the right. To the left, a girl in a white top and a black skirt with white polka dots is walking and smiling. The background is a wall made of red bricks. The ground is dirt with some small pieces of trash.

JOIN OUR WORKSHOP AT AIDS2018

Effective community engagement:

How communities and health facilities can jointly improve eMTCT and paediatric HIV service delivery

Date: Wednesday 25 July 2018

Time: 14.30 – 17.00 h

Venue: Emerald Room, RAI, Amsterdam

PROGRAMME

In this workshop for healthcare workers, policy makers and community groups you can learn how to effectively work together to improve eMTCT and paediatric HIV service delivery.

- 14.30 Welcome and introduction
Dominic Kemps, Positive Action for Children Fund
- 14.40 Participants experience sharing
Doortje 't Hart, Aidsfonds
- 14.55 The perspective of a mother
Jacqueline Alesi, Ambassador Coalition for Children affected by AIDS
- 15.05 Introduction to Clinic-Community Collaboration methodology
Helen Chorlton, PATA
- 15.15 A community intervention model for reaching all children exposed to HIV experiences & lessons from the TAFU program in Uganda
Merian Musinguzi, Aidsfonds
- 15.25 How to set up a community intervention programme? How to initiate healthcare facility-community partnerships?
Group work
- 16.25 The way forward: what are our next steps?
- 16.50 Evaluation & closing statement
Agnes Ronan, PATA
- 17.00 Closing the session

